Tiny Angel

For a brief and fleeting
Moment an angel
touched the ground
With tiny wings and halo and sweet, soft angel sounds
Blessing the lives of others in beauty and in grace
Those who saw her knew that God had kissed her tiny face
The angel came for reasons we may not understand
Her journey brief, with gifts so great and guided by God's hand
For the angel left so much behind left nothing here undone
She gave herself so others live just like her Father's son
So rest now tiny angel your work on earth is through
In the beauty of God's perfect love we saw His gift in you.

Fingerprints

Your fingerprints are on my heart.
Even though I never held your hand
You touched me.
Even though I never heard you speak
You taught me.
You taught me about love.
You taught me about caring.
You taught me about courage.
You taught me about faith.
You taught me about happiness.
You taught me about sorrow.
You brought me closer to my loved ones.
You brought me closer to myself.
In the time I cared for you,
My life changed
Never to be the same again.
Because of you
I know I will somehow be stronger.
Because of you
I know I will be more prepared for life.
All this from tiny fingerprints
That touched my heart.
Because of this
You will live forever in my soul
Never to be forgotten
I will always love you.
You are my child.

Our Angels in Disguise

*I remember the day
I heard them say
The worst was yet to come
Yet there I watched
Up on that screen
Each week you grew so strong...
And while our hearts did ache
As every fear became too close
We couldn't help but wonder
Why you had come so far
For such a short time,
And that question came into our hearts
More often than not...
As we realized this wasn't accidental
But an answer to our prayers,
Souls once lost, found their way
Through the guidance of a light
That seemed so bright they couldn't see
The power of their Savior's love,
As he sent two of his very own
To lift us from the storm,
Two precious boys, two little spirits
How hard it must have been
For Him to let you go
I know, I felt it too,
And as they lay, one in each hand
I had to say
Before too late
Thank you,
I'll see you again,
Our Angels in Disguise.*

Annual Mother's Day Craft

This year for our annual Mother's Day craft we will be making hand stamped pendant necklaces with crystal birthstones. We will have metal stamp sets available so you can custom design your pendant how you want. You will be able to stamp designs on your tag, initials, or names. We ask if possible for you to RSVP so we know the amount of supplies to order and also what month birthstones you will need. Our necklaces will not be exactly like the pictures, but this is just to give an idea of what we will be making. Come and enjoy a night away with friends! We will be meeting on Thursday, May 6, 7:30, at Davis Hospital. Please make a donation "In Memory Of" if you would like to help offset the cost of materials. A donation is not required.

Please RSVP Tanya Price by April 22: 801-825-3578

Dear Easter Bunny

I just had to write today
To see if you'll stop in heaven
As you hop
along your way?
You see, a part
of me is up there
That I miss with all my heart
You see, my child is up in heaven
and it's torn my life apart
When you take the eggs up there
Please whisper in his ear
Wish him Happy Easter
For I miss him more, every passing year.

Supporting a Grieving Family

How to Help

- Be supportive, visit or call to say "I care and I want to help."
- Treat the bereaved couple equally. Men need as much support as women
- Be available. Parents need direct help-providing a meal, doing errands, babysitting other children.
- Allow the parents to talk about their child; ask but don't pry.
- Learn about the grieving process. There are many resources available.
- Don't be afraid of reminding the parents about the child. They have never never forgotten, and letting them know you remember is comforting.
- Be liberal with touching the grieving parent. They often have a need for contact.

What to Say:

- I'm sorry.
- I'm so sad for your loss.
- How are you managing all of this?
- What can I do for you?
- I'm here and I want to listen.
- Talk as long as you want. I have plenty of time.
- You don't have to say anything at all.

What NOT to say:

- It all happened for the best.
- You're young, you can have others.
- Now you'll have an angel in heaven.
- You're better off having this happen now, before you knew the baby.
- This was God's way of saying something was wrong.
- You should feel lucky you are alive.
- Forget it. Put it behind you and move on with your life.
- I understand. (If you have not had a similar experience.)
