The Steeppover

*They've packed their bags and favorite toys,
A giggling group of girls and boys*

*A trip to Grammy's, a night of treats
A cousin fest, with little sleep*

*They get to play and sleep all night,
Oh they'll behave, they seldom fight.*

*They've settled in, they're breathing deep,
A sigh a moan, a little beep.*

*My house is full, my heart is not,
Inside I have an aching spot.*

*I miss your voice, your laugh of glee,
Your tiny arms, encircling me.*

The others here will never know Why you were taken, we miss you so.

*As night descends on sleeping faces,
I scan the sky for Heavenly places*

*A shining star, beams through the night
A flicker, a twinkle, of far away light.*

*Tears form, but peace fills the air,
You haven't missed it, I know you are here.*

*Your bag too, is packed with Heavenly toys
Of love and comfort and radiant joy.*

Your tiny presence, a watch you will keep Over your loved ones as each of them sleeps.
